ELEVENTH YEAR.

EARLINGTON, HOPKINS COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1900

NO. 25

"HENDERSON ROUTE"

Chosen as Official Route of Kentucky Democrats to Their National Convention.

The following circular has been issued by the general passenger agent of the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Ry. It is fully explanatory of the plans of the "Kentucky Democratic Special" in the parts we reproduce:

"Your attention is directed to a circular just issued, bearing the indorsement of some of the leading Democrats of the State, wherein the Henderson Route (Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Ry.) and the Missouri Pacific Ry. are adopted and recommended to the Democracy of Kentucky as the best route possible to Kansas City, where the Democratic National Convention will convene July 4th. The Henderson Route is distinctively a Kentucky road, independent in its connection with other lines and in its appeal to the Democracy of Kentucky can offer nothing stronger as an inducement, sharing alike with every inhabitant of the State the fortunes and misfortunes that come to our good and grand old Commonwealth.

"In order to further arrange for your comfort and pleasure, we have agreed to place on sale at once, berths in special Pullman Sleepers for your convenience, and we urge you to order the same at once. They can be occupied at Louisville, Henderson or intermediate points, the rate being $3.00 through to Kansas City, or $2.00 from St. Louis to Kansas City. Two persons can occupy one berth. It is not compulsory to take a Pullman Sleeper; indeed, we have anticipated the wishes and comfort of all, and the 'Special' as made up will also contain specially equipped high-back standard coaches, and the matter is left entirely optional with you.

"Remember the 'Democratic Special' leaves Louisville Monday, July 2d, 1 p. m., from Seventh and River Union Depot, and the rate from Louisville to Kansas City and return is $15.50, or one single fare from any point in the State for the round trip, inquire of the nearest ticket agent for particulars. See that your ticket reads via the Henderson Route, G. M. SMITH, Ticket Agent, L. H. & St. L. Ry., Henderson, Ky. L. J. IRWIN, General Passenger Agent, L. H. & St. L. Ry., Louisville, Ky.

A Baseless Charge Against Yerkes.

John S. Rhea is quoted in all the newspaper reports of the Democratic convention as follows: "Let the Republicans put up Mr. Yerkes; we have nothing to fear. As Senator Blackburn has said, he is the cleanest and ablest of all the Republican assassins in Kentucky." It does not lie in the ribald mouth of John Rhea to assail the character of John W. Yerkes. His designation of this modest gentleman as an "assassin" is a most infamous slander. It could only have been uttered by a low politician, whose sole stock in trade is his coarseness and blasphemy. Rhea is the ideal type of the mouthing, ignorant Democrat who retains a hold on his party by vulgar stump speeches. When a particularly malignant assault is thought necessary to wound or defame some celebrated leader of the people, Rhea is selected because of the vileness of his tongue.

John W. Yerkes needs no defense. His public and private records are unassailable. Can Rhea stand that searching inquiry? One is a manly, clean highbred gentleman; the other is a rapid blackguard whose bar-room wit is only valued in Democratic conventions. Upon his return to Kentucky Mr. Yerkes should prosecute Rhea for defaming him as an "assassin." The slanders have been too long permitted to circulate, by pen and tongue, their dirty lies against worthy men. They should be made an example of. Let Mr. Yerkes begin with the blatant Rhea and pillory him before the public as a wanton bearer of false witness, and it will cause the whole brood of slander-mongers to pause in their venomous work. — Louisville Commercial.

Powers of the Triumvirate.

Judge Lewis and other Goebelites are telling the people that the Goebel law and the State Election Commission have nothing to do with the contests for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor. In part this statement is true, but it should be remembered that every member of our Legislature, before which these contests come, is dependent upon the Goebel County Election Commissioners for his certificate of election, and we recall a number of instances in which trickery in legislative races was resorted to by these officers. The County Commissioners are mere creatures of the triumvirate at Frankfort, and, as South Trimble puts it, are expected to do things no honorable man would do. They are removed at will if they refuse to obey orders, and it is an easy matter for the State Board of elections, and when the make-up of the Legislature is in doubt it is in their power to have the credentials issued as desired. With a majority thus secured, the Triumvirate cannot only dictate as to their own successors, but can in reality decide who is to be Governor and Lieutenant-Governor.

The State Board at Frankfort cannot only decide the Governorship and Lieutenant-Governorship, but it can, by political manipulations, choose as our judges men of its own selection. It has only to dictate the nominations and its creatures do the rest, regardless of the votes cast. Kentucky is a mere handball for these gentlemen to play with. They dictate our nominations, name our election officers, count out their political enemies with consummate contempt for the voters.

Yet this is the law that Mr. Blackburn would have amended so as to give the Republicans a minority on the county boards, and would also do away with the party emblem. This proposed amendment of the law by abolishing the device is an effort to disfranchise a part of the rightful voters and an attempt to make voting slow and confusing, and to make the counting of the votes, first by the county officers and then by the canvassing boards, so interminable and involved that it will leave the result of the elections in Kentucky absolutely under the control of the State Board and its creatures.

The announcement yesterday that the Democratic convention at Lexington will demand that Mr. Beckham call the Legislature together and pass an amended bill is pleasant reading, but the people of Kentucky will have to see the Democrats do all this before they will believe one word of it. They have had two years of the Goebel law and of its workings, and never yet has any pledge of the Goebelites been carried out.

A pretended reformation of the law as a vote-catcher will prove very poor bait in Kentucky this fall. — Louisville Evening Post.

LETTER FROM PHILIPPINES.

Henry Jones Writes From Island of Masbate—Is Well Satisfied.

The following letter from Henry G. Jones, now 1st Sergeant Co. B. 29th Infantry in the Philippines, to W. A. Toombs, THE BEAR is permitted to publish for the benefit of friends here who are interested in what the boys are doing abroad, notwithstanding the "Aunties".

PORT POLANCO, MASBATE ISLAND, P. I., May 10, 1900.

DEAR FRIEND TOOMBS:—Please pardon me for writing you so very much but you seem to be one of my best friends in Earlinton and having a few spare days awaiting for the surrender of the Insurgents. We are now on the Island of Masbate, 80 miles from Manila, and we are the first white men ever on the island. It is certainly a beautiful place, and we are enjoying good health, except a few of the men who do not take care of themselves and eat everything in sight.

My experience with the Governmentations is, that it is the best in the world for the soldier in the field and take every thing in consideration the administration is O. K., and are handling this little trouble over here with a mastery hand and are doing every thing they can for the comfort and care of the men. Right here, I want to say that they ought to gag some of their antics over there while I have always been a Democrat, but from this on I am in favor of the Administration and the policy that they are pursuing, and the very ones you hear so much kick from are the ones that are either tramps at home, or are being urged on by the anti side of the question. I don't know how you are on this question but if you were over here and could see the things as I do you would say that the United States is O. K. Love to all. Must close as the gunboat leaves in a few minutes. Have had a small scrap—I don't think I killed any one. Send me some papers.

Yours,

HENRY G. JONES.

A Wonderful Organization.

Very few people realize the magnitude and scope of the Sunday School work of this country and Canada. Through its various organizations, thirteen and a half millions of people are reached with the Word of God. The International Convention, whose field covers the United States, Canada and Mexico, is the most comprehensive religious organization in the world, including as it does, all denominations, who work harmoniously together to save the children of the land. This Association also has a worker in Japan.

The work in the International Convention is carried on by two great Committees, one the International Lesson Committee which selects the Sunday School lessons for the whole world; and the International Executive Committee, of which B. F. Jacobs, Atwood Hill, Chicago, Ill., is Chairman, which has in charge the convention and field work, and all other general work. All but six States, Territories and Provinces are now organized in State or Provincial Associations, having in charge the Sunday School work of their own State or Province. Many States now have every County organized. The Township organization is the one that reaches the individual schools, and comes in personal touch with the workers in these schools. Each township, county, State or province holds one or more conventions annually, aggregating many thousands in a year. The Sunday School work, through the individual schools and the various organizations, is doing more for the cause of righteousness and good citizenship in our land than all other agencies combined.

A Card of Thanks.

As I can not remember the names of all those who have so kindly rendered me so many special favors and extended to me their heart-felt sympathy during my recent sad bereavement for fear I might overlook some one should I attempt to personally thank each individual, I take this opportunity of extending to each and everyone my highest appreciation

I feel to them should be given some special expression of thanks, gratitude and appreciation. Wishing to one and all an exemption from any such sad misfortune as my lot has been. I remain yours with the deepest gratitude, etc.

M. McCORD.

Earlington, Ky., June 26, 1900.

Mail-McGregor.

On last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock Mr. Joe H. Huff and Miss Fannie McGregor were united in marriage at the residence of J. J. McGregor, Rev. R. M. Wheat officiating. George Robinson and Miss Nannie Ashby were the attendants. Mr. Huff is a popular young railroad man and one who bears the highest esteem of his employers, fellow-employees and all his many friends. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McGregor and is one of the prettiest and most popular ladies in the city. The BEAR joins with their friends in extending to them hearty congratulations, and in wishing for them a long and happy life.

The Railroad Commission will meet at Middletown July 10 to hear complaints against the L. & N. railroad, charged with extortion for carrying extra baggage and passenger rate on the Cumberland Valley branch of that road.

DEATH ANGEL

Takes Mrs. Marion McCord as His Victim.

Mrs. Katharine Rogers McCord, wife of Marion McCord, the well-known contractor, answered the final summons last Monday morning about 9 o'clock. Mrs. McCord had been ill for several days, and although everything possible was done to relieve her suffering and restore her to health, she gave way under the strain of suffering.

She was about thirty-five years of age and was married to Mr. McCord about fourteen years ago. To this union, four children were born, all of whom, with Mr. McCord, survive. No woman who has ever lived in Earlinton had more friends than did the deceased woman. Patient, kind, unassuming, she was loved and respected by all who knew her, and her death cast a gloom of sorrow over the entire community.

The funeral services were held at the family residence by Rev. Dr. Francis Lee Goff, of Hopkinsville, in the presence of a large congregation of sorrowing relatives and friends.

The sermon was an impressive one, and the preacher's tribute to the deceased woman was a beautiful and touching one. One of the most touching incidents connected with the funeral was the baptism and dedication to God of the motherless little babe, this scene brought tears to many eyes.

After the funeral services the body was taken to the Earlinton cemetery, where it was tenderly laid to rest. The pall-bearers were: J. R. Raeh, Paul M. Moore, D. M. Evans, W. S. McGary, Claude Oldham and Robert Gordon.

To the bereaved husband, little motherless children and all the relatives, THE BEAR extends its profoundest sympathy.

GRAND PICNIC.

The A. O. U. W. Will Celebrate the Fourth with a Great Picnic.

The members of the Ancient Order United Workmen are lending every energy to make the Fourth of July Picnic a success in every particular. Committees have been hard at work for some time and the plans have all been arranged. Nothing has been neglected in preparing to give the people a day of enjoyment. There will be music furnished by a first class band, refreshments in abundance and amusements of various kinds. One of the grandest features will be the speaking. Grand Recorder John G. Walker, of Louisville, and other prominent speakers will address the people on that day. The committees expect to arrange for a grand fire-works display at night. All the Fourth of July picnics at Lakeside Park heretofore have been enjoyable, but the Workmen expect to make this picnic the grandest one of all.

The parade will form at the Masonic Hall at 9 o'clock, and headed by a good band will march to Lakeside Park. Visiting Workmen are invited to take part in the parade.

So, if you want to spend a pleasant day, just come to Lakeside Park and help the Workmen celebrate the glorious Fourth.

R. H. Thornberry Deed.

Poole, Ky., June 26, 1900.

R. H. Thornberry of whom spoke of some time ago, died Sunday night, June 24th at 10:30 o'clock. He was born February 2, 1860 and lived to a more advanced age than is the lot of most of his fellow-men. He leaves behind him five sons and four daughters and a larger posterity than any other man in this part of the state. The writer, nor anyone else can give the exact number, but it must far exceed one hundred. The youngest of his children is nearly fifty years old and some of the older ones are deemed by all to be old people. He was a life-long member of the Baptist church, and was very regular in attendance at all meetings while he was able to go. His chief desire was to depart and be with Christ. He was an honest and upright man. Uncle Russell, as he was best known, has been a familiar personage in this immediate vicinity beyond the recollection of our oldest citizens. He was truly an old patriarch: Peace be with him.

Special Appeal to the Citizens of Hopkins County.

In November last, a young Men's Christian Association was organized in our county. Our county was the first to be organized in this State. In fact, which we all ought to feel proud of.

Soon after the organization was formed, Mr. Howard Caldwell was employed to take charge of the work under the supervision and direction of this committee. The object of this association is to induce in every way possible the young men of our county to lead pure, manly and Godly lives, and to fit them to become good Christian citizens, such men as our county and state need—men of good Christian character.

We are glad to advise you that up to this time a great deal of good work has been done along this line.

We have at present four associations established. One at Madisonville, one at Earlinton, one at Nebo and one at Hanson.

It is our intention to organize associations all over the county where as many as ten or twelve young men can be found who can meet together at stipulated times.

Our County Secretary, Mr. Howard Caldwell will keep in touch with these associations. We do not intend to organize any faster than we can properly take care of them. Our aim is to be sure we "are right and then go ahead."

We are doing a great work for our young men. If you want any evidence of this, we refer you to any of the pastors of Madisonville, Earlinton, Nebo or Hanson. Any of our committee or our Secretary, Mr. Caldwell will be glad to give any further information to any one who may desire it.

To one's practical work among the young men of our county, and to fit them for use as citizens and as church workers it takes money, and as this work is a benefit to our young men, whom we need help and we request you to respond to our call to the best of your ability. All of the committee give their time without any pay. The money is needed to pay our county secretary and his expenses. Any member of the committee or the county secretary, Mr. Howard Caldwell is authorized to receive your donation to this grand work for our young men. All who contribute towards this work will receive a receipt for amount, and will be furnished with a quarterly report which will show you the work being done.

We earnestly appeal to you to help in this grand work. Every one can only tell the good that will be done. Please respond at once.

Mrs. Platt Dead.

Mrs. Margaret Platt, wife of Sampson Platt, died at the family residence at Merton's Bay last Friday, and was buried at the Earlinton cemetery Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Platt was born in Durham, England, July 29, 1848, and was nearly fifty-one years of age at the time of her death. She was married to Sampson Platt, February, 1871. To this union, five children were born, all of whom are living. Mrs. Platt was for many years a member of the Methodist church and was a consistent Christian, and one who bore the love and respect of all who knew her.

Church Notes.

A protracted meeting will begin at the M. E. Church, South, Monday night, July 10. Rev. J. P. Stubblefield, of Owensboro, will do the preaching. Mr. Stubblefield is an earnest and eloquent preacher and all who hear him will be profited.

There will be preaching at the M. E. Church, South, next Sunday, preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The public is invited to attend services.

No worthy man is allowed to suffer who is in the employ of the St. Bernard Coal Company, and rather than oppress any, thousands of dollars are given away annually in losses for that company.

A writer in the United Mine Workers Journal here gives the condition under which coal mining was carried on many years ago in England:

that's a large army of earnest Kentuckians.

It is suggested that Senator
Jones, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, might give the people some items about trusts, since he has been for some years a member of the cotton bale trust.

The following question is pertinent and must put people to thinking—those who have anything to think with:

Is the people of the country are against expansion how is it that nobody can be found to run for President on an anti-expansion policy platform?

THE average value of every cow on the farm the first day of this year was $31.60. On January 1, 1894, under Democratic rule each cow was worth only $21.77. American farmers are sensible and prefer the Republican cows at the advance of $10
each over the degenerate Democratic species.

POLITICAL POINTS.

apolis after his trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

There is a rumor abroad that the Populists are negotiating for

Gus Coulter, the Goebelite who accepted the pilfered office of State Auditor and is handling the funds, is endeavoring to take vengeance on State Mine Inspector Geo. W. Stone by curtailing
the latter's salary $50 a month.
Coulter claims to have discovered a flaw which he says deprives the inspector of the right to receive $50 a month as curator of the State geological survey exhibit. Former Auditor Stone who was acknowledged to be a most careful man paid this salary

SWALLOWING THE BRYAN PILL.

—New York Herald.

Wood if He Could.

Contributed.
Agitor Wood addressed a motley
crowd at Barbours Tuesday night
which for variegated complexion laid "Joseph's coat" in the shade.
A careful scrutiny revealed the fact that the audience seemed about equally made up of men, women,
children, whites, a few colored men,
scabs, "salt of the earth" visitors and "yaller" dogs. Wood opened up as mild as soothing syrup and for twenty minutes everything flowed smoothly but that kind of oratory is not his kind of ammunition. As soon as he touched the situation in Hopkins county he began to paw
the air and belch at capital. The atmosphere assumed an indigo hue,
the temperature arose to a fever
heat and the air reeked with threats of vengeance and slaughter. His discourse was composed of offhand assertions and either open or implied threats.

AS THE BEE was denounced in the most vehement and vindictive terms
we feel it our incumbent duty to notice a few of his utterances and append a brief comment. He said:
"The operators of Hopkins county are Christian gentlemen and are only doing what I or anybody on earth would do that possesses a grain of common sense; they are getting their coal dug for the least outlay of money." Then for very shame's sake, Bro. Wood, why don't you quit trying to raise money with men whom you say are only doing what you or any sensible man would do.

"Wages are lower in Hopkins County than any where that union labor is employed. Why at these places are raising more than twice as much wages as the Hopkins County miner." Then why, Bro. Wood, do even your own people who leave Hopkins and go to those allied places of milk and honey, return after a few days?
Either such prices do not exist or they won't work at even extravagant wages? Now really, Bro. Wood are you not crowding Ananias mightily close on that question of wages and don't you think your call in asking the poor down-trodden miners of Hopkins County to pay your dues would put a brass knocker to the blinder?

"If a man leaves here and goes to work at any place during a strike and he is not killed, it is not the fault of honest men."
Now, Brother Wood, do you think that "honest men" would kill a fellow being for wanting to work? The United Mine Workers, no doubt,
would do such a thing, but "honest men" never. And is that the estimate that you and yours place upon human life, and is that the regard you all have for both statute and divine law? If so, there is not an "honest man" in the whole pack.

"Organized labor has always brought better times and better prices." Then, why, oh why, Brother Wood, did Barnley, an organized mine, owned by organized people, go into the hands of a receiver, and why was it, Brother Wood, that they did not have a pay day for four years, if organized labor always inaugurates a millennium?

"The St. Bernard men are living on as little as they say the striker is getting." "Yes, yes," cried red-eyed Wade, "and a heap less, too." Now,
dear brother, with the crimson opties, is it not a fact that when you had the misfortune to lose your home
and household goods that the St.
Bernard people rallied quickly to your aid, and did they not give you far more assistance than the people of Barnley, and that too, right when organized labor was in the hey day of its existence in Barnley?
Now, dear brother, with vermillion orbs, don't you really think that common sense and gratitude should prompt you to think and speak kindly of those who stood by you through the dark and trying time of adversity? And who do you think you should stand by, those who suc-ored you in trouble, or suchmen as Wood, who vilify and abuse them.

Morrison Must Hang.

William Morrison, who killed
Douglas Coffman of Slaughterville, at Springfield, Tenn., last fall, has been convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hung Aug. 10. The trial was a hard fought one, quite an array of legal talent being employed on each side.
Hon. W. E. Bourland, of Dixon, assisted in the prosecution.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion, biliousness. Doctors were scarce,
and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration, or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clear out the system and stay fermentation of undig-ested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the system, and organize action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower. In liquid form, to make you satisfied
there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store.

For a Beautiful Complexion, Take Dr. Otto's German Liver Powder.

Horse Case, Ky., June 28.—Four of our most prominent and well-to-business men left yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock to walk to Nashville, Tenn., a distance of 105 miles.
They are walking simply for the novelty of the thing.

For two years Ira W. Kelley, of Mansfield, Pa., was in poor health on account of kidney trouble. He consulted several physicians and spent considerable money for medicines without obtaining relief until he tried Fole's Kidney Cure, and now writes "I desire to add my testimony that it may be the cause of aiding others."

When you think you are chasing the devil around the stable, the stable
he generally knows he's chasing you.

A Warning.

Pain or soreness in the back must never be slighted. Kidney diseases creep on us with only one warning. Delay is folly when by timely use of Morley's Liver and Kidney Cordial, the great system renovator all danger can be avoided. This remedy is a positive cure for Kidney and Urinary Troubles. Sold by agent in every town and by Campbell & Co.

Lots of women dress shabbily
in the morning because no one will be around to see them.

A yellow jaundiced skin is a symptom of disordered liver, as it springs from biliary poisons retained in the blood, which destroy energy, cheerfulness, strength, vigor, happiness and life. Herbolite will restore the natural functions of the liver. Price 50 cents at St. Bernard Drugstore.

Shooting at Clay.

In a shooting affray between John McGill and Jack Rayburn, at Clay, Webster county, A. N. Skinner, a bystander, was killed by a bullet from Rayburn's pistol. The trouble resulted from a wrestling match between McGill and Rayburn, when both were drunk, and it ended in a shot and skull fight. They met afterwards in Skinner's livery stable and began shooting, with the result mentioned above.

Skinner was a very highly respected citizen and a prominent business man. He was a Mason and Knight of Pythias.

Wonderful Eight

Cures cholera, diarrhoea, colic,
cramps, lameness, sprains, lumbago,
swellings, pains in the head or body,
neuralgia, rheumatism and toothache, all pain, internal or external, cured quicker with Morley's Wonderful Eight than any other remedy.
Free trial bottles at Campbell Drugstore. Sold by agent in every town.

All widows had to wear mourning caps in the days of Tiberius,
under penalty of fine and imprisonment.

DIGEST YOUR FOOD.

Twenty per cent. of all sickness is caused by food not being properly digested. It causes poison and goes into your blood and then you are able to almost any disease the human system is heir to. Use Dr. Carter's German Liver Powder and watch the results. You will feel the good effects after taking one dose. Give it a trial and be convinced. Price 25c.

FATAL mistakes are made by those who do not heed the earlier symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble,
that often end in Bright's disease or diabetes. When Fole's Kidney Cure makes the kidneys well, how foolish it is to delay.

IT IS TO EARLINGTON

We would talk. That is why we patronize THE BEE. When we wish to approach the people of Hopkins county generally there are other mediums would serve equally as well perhaps, but when it is to Earlingtonians especially we would address ourselves, why of course it is through THE BEE we should speak. We are very mindful of the fact that Earlington is a great place—as all cities composed of great and good people are bound to be—still there are times when one is unable to find merchandise exactly to his or her notion at home, and Earlington is no exception to the rule. You have placed us under lasting obligations to you for the liberal patronage you have favored us with thus far, and we are anxious to acknowledge as much. We are certainly grateful from the bottom of our heart. Thank you, good people, thank you.

We are showing now a "hot" line of "hot" weather Dress Goods and "hot" weather Shoes, and, too, we must tell you of our great values in Underwear and Hosiery. ## MCKINLEY AND ROOSEVELT.

The Ticket Placed in Nomination by the Republican Convention at Philadelphia.

THERE WAS NOT A DISSIDENTING VOTE.

The Proceedings Went with a Snap, Punctuated by Scenes of Intense Enthusiasm, and Final Adjournment Was Reached Shortly After Two O'Clock—Synopsis of the Final Term.

Philadelphia, June 21.—President McKinley was unanimously renominated for president of the United States by the republican national convention at 10:45 o'clock to-day, and then he and his family left the city, and then Roosevelt of New York was unanimously selected to succeed him in the coming battle.

Unprecedented Tumultuous.
The scenes attending the selection were tumultuous. There were no demonstrations in honor of the nominees of a national convention have never been equalled, perhaps in the history of politics in this country. It was a levee, a jubilee, a ratification meeting.

There was a fine setting for today's spectacular drama. Bright people in either end of the stage, made two flaming bits of color. Over the vast multitude fans moved constantly, and the like the plumes of a cloud of alarmed birds beating the air.

There were no preliminaries. The struggle between the two sides of the question of reducing the representation in the senate was averted by the withdrawal of ex-Senator Quay's proposition.

Nominations Made in Order.
The great hall became quiet as Senator Lodge, standing before 15,000 eager faces, gave in hand, announced that nominations for president of the United States were in order. The reading clerk advanced to the front of the platform.

Waived Right in Favor of Ohio.
He was just about to call the roll of states for the presentation of candidates. When Alabama was called a thin, whiskered delegate from that state arose and volunteered the first right to speak to Ohio.

Foraker Ascends the Platform.
A cluster of hawklike figures filled the stage and gathered round the delegate. He was the pit in Senator Foraker, of Ohio, the ideal of militant republicanism, strode toward the platform.

With forearm, ringing voice, and grand gesture, Foraker stifled the tumult.

Already Thrice Named.
When he said the nomination had already been made, that McKinley and Lodge and the platform had each in turn named his candidate, a great cheer went up. When he said that McKinley was the first choice of every man who desired republican success in November, the roar was like the roar of a heavy sea through rocky caverns.

The sight was a grand and inspiring one. In the pit the delegates and alternates were cheering enthusiastically. Over the acres of spectators' heads came the sound of cheering.

Hanna as a General.
On the speaker platform the newspaper men, with watches and cameras, were busy. On the stage, Senator Hanna, his handkerchief in one hand, a fan in the other, was spurring the vast assembly to cheer. The ringing storm did not seem to satisfy him. He seized a plume and waved it about his head like a general leading his men to the charge.

Three Cheers for Mark Hanna.
A Texas delegate shouted above the roar: "Three cheers for Mark Hanna." They were given with a will.

The Marching Spirit of John Brown.
Then a delegate with Ohio's standard, and went carrying toward the rear to the music of "John Brown's Body Lies Mold'ring in the Grave." The bearers of the standards of the other states plunged after him. Down the aisle they swung, starting the whole storm afresh.

The No. 10 in Evidence.
When they reached the main entrance they were met by men holding aloft a gigantic paper mache elephant, with the national colors entwined about its neck. Then the procession came back and circled the pit. For several minutes this parade continued. The demonstration all told lasted exactly 15 minutes.

The Man of the Hour.

This protracted outburst was but the forerunner of the pandemonium that reigned a moment later when Roosevelt, the man of the hour, mounted the platform to second the president's nomination. When the convention caught sight of him it went off like a rocket. As he stood there facing the yelling multitude the roar could have been heard for blocks.

The Power of Persuasion.

When finally he was allowed to begin, he plunged directly to the heart of his subject in the impetuous way which the people have always admired. His first statement was that he rose to second the nomination of William McKinley, who had faced more problems than any president since Lincoln. The convention got on its feet and it was several minutes before he could proceed.

Broad Sword and Sledge Hammer.

Roosevelt is no master of the foil. He prefers the broad sword and as he laid about him with sledgehammer blows the multitude went wild with delight. A Nebraska delegate shouted: "His 'em again!"

American No Wrecking.

When he reached his position at the head of a world of infinite scope in the voice asked if America was a wrecking to shrink from the work of a world power. The "No" in chorus. When he concluded and resumed his seat in the New York delegation the other delegates rushed forward and surrounded him. Many embraced him, and it seemed for a moment as if they would lift him to their shoulders.

Other Seconds of the Nomination.
Senator Thurston, the Democratic of the senate; John W. Yerkes, an actor from the Blue Grass state; and Gov. Mount of Indiana, also seconded McKinley's nomination, but before the latter concluded his eulogy was impatient for a vote, and several times tried to hush him down.

Cast in Solid Blocks.
Then the roll of states was called and delegation after delegation rose in solid blocks and cast their votes for McKinley.

The Name With Storm.
When Chairman Lodge made his announcement that the president had been renominated for the term beginning March 4, 1901, there was the same wild storm which had been raised by Foraker, and when it was over Roosevelt's nomination for the vice-presidency evoked a succession of similar demonstrations.

Roosevelt Nominated.
Lafe Young, of Iowa, who was with McKinley in Cuba, nominated him on behalf of the state which had originally come to Philadelphia for Delivar. His nomination was seconded by Theodore Murray, of Secretary Long's state, and Delegate Adams, of Washington, which came here for Bartlett Tapp.

Chauncey Wound Up the Oratory.
Chauncey Depew wound up the oratory on behalf of the state which he declared for Woodruff. Depew's speech aroused the most intense enthusiasm when he pictured the darling dream of the country's future. During every pause the band played but one air, the tune which Col. Roosevelt had heard in the trenches before Santiago.

An Unparalleled Record.
At 2:14, the convention, which had done the unparalleled thing of nominating both the candidates for president and vice-president unanimously adjourned.

McKinley and Roosevelt.
Tonight the faces of McKinley and Roosevelt are on all the badges and their names on every pin.

NOTWITHSTANDING THE WEATHER

Masonic Picnic was a Success Financially and Otherwise.

STURGIS LODGE CAPTURES THE PRIZE.

Notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather conditions the Masonic picnic Saturday was successful to a surprising degree. All feel confident that but for the miserable weather of Friday and the gloomy prospects of Saturday morning, there would have been a multitude on the grounds.

The truth is the boys were significantly flat of their backs on Friday and ready to throw the whole work overboard and notify the towns and country about that there would be no picnic. But the weather bureau predicted fair weather for Saturday and all took courage. Expenses would have been curtailed in anticipation of a small attendance but every promise was fulfilled as if the large gathering expected had been present. The people who were served most liberally with good things feast and given opportunity to enjoy the day with very pleasant surroundings.

The Madisonville Cornet Band, the best string band and a pair of traveling troubadours, made the air vibrate with sweet music. The shade was fine and the afternoon very pleasant. Various games were supplied for the amusement of the visitors.

A unique feature of the day was a Gypsy fortune-teller's tent in which Miss Mary T. Black, of New Jersey, presided as the Gipsy and told the fate and fortune of all comers. Miss Black has been visiting the family of Mr. Jno. B. Atkinson for some weeks but her disguise was so complete that many of the Earlington people who had seen her did not recognize her in the guise of a fortune-teller. Her tent was besieged constantly and she kept busy reading the dark or rosy future until friends had pity on her and closed up the tent and spirited her away.

A number of ladies gave their time and labors to make the day a success.

The sheaf of wheat that hung on the pole near the lake, at the crossing of the spillway brought out inquiry and comment.

Visitors were here from the most remote parts of the county. The Sturgis Lodge, Kelsey No. 659, traveled 88 miles by rail to be with us and captured the very handsome silver set of lodge and officers' jewels that had been offered by E. W. Turner Lodge.

The masons were so well pleased with the result of the day that they have engaged Lakeside Park for the 4th of July 1901 when they propose to give the biggest picnic on record.

Mrs. C. S. Jackson, of Hopkinsville, visited the family W. R. Coyne several days last week.

Prof. C. M. Lutz, of Madisonville, spent Tuesday night with relatives here.

Frank Trice, of Hopkinsville, visited the family of Dr. E. A. Chatten this week.

BIG ENGINE IS SPEEDY.

Special Train of Colorado Excursionists Test New Locomotive.

Railway men of all classes are watching with much interest the tests of the "120 series" of engines of the Rock Island road, the largest running out of Chicago in passenger service. Engine No. 1201 was given its first "severe" test for power and speed last week. The patrons of the Rock Island's first excursion to Colorado occupied fourteen of the largest and heaviest coaches. This was enough for two trains to be pulled by ordinary passenger engines of the day, considering the speed required.

The big engine did all that was expected of it and more. Between Chicago and Rock Island it pulled that train of fourteen coaches with ease on a schedule time, and when called on for a little extra effort developed a speed of over 72 miles an hour.

Engines of that class will haul all the special trains which will be used by the Rock Island in the series of Colorado excursions, at the rate of one fare plus $2.00 for the round trip. Three more excursions will be given.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON 1, THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, JULY 1.

Text of the Lesson, Math. xiv, 22-33. Memory Verses, 27-33. Study Verse, Math. xiv, 33. Commentary Prepared by the Rev. D. M. Stearns.

(Copyright, 1909, of D. M. Stearns.)
22. Jesus constrained or compelled His disciples to get into a ship and to cross the sea while he sent the multitude away. After the 5,000 were fed some of the people would have said to Jesus and to make Him king, but He went away into a mountain alone (John vi, 15). His kingdom, although yet to be established on this earth, does not originate from man or is due in any way to the will of man or the favor of man; His kingdom is not of this world (John xviii, 36).

23. He went up into a mountain alone to pray, having sent the multitude away. His life was communion with God His Father. The Father sent Him; He always pleased the Father, and the Father was ever with Him. No one on earth understood Him fully, not even Mary, His mother, nor John who leaned on His bosom. They did not understand His words either, they were all so earthly, and he was so heavenly, but He was so patient with them and loved them to the end.

24. "But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves, for the wind was contrary." Mark vi, 48, says, "He saw them toiling to rowing." John vi, 10, says that they rowed 20 or 30 fathoms. He often sends or leads His people into trial, but never more than they can bear (1 Cor. x, 13). He has trials for His own, but for those who love Him "The Lord trieth the righteous" (Ps. xi, 5). Consider Abraham and Job (Job, xii, 47; Jas. i, 11). The Lord knows what we know where He is, and to them all was darkness and discouragement, but He saw them.

25. "And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea." Mark vi, 48, says, "He passed by them, reminding us of Himself to those who do not really want Him and think they can do very well without Him. They did not know that He was there on the sea, for, as far as they knew, He had no way of reaching them. They might find Him up on the shore, but not on the sea, for as far as they knew, that was to them an uncertainty. It is often true in the deliverance of daily life, as it will be when He shall come again, 'In such an hour as ye think not.' Happy are those who are ever looking to Him and depending upon Him (Ps. lxxv, 5; Isa. xxx, 18).

26. "They were troubled, saying, It is a spirit, and they cried out with fear." On the evening of the resurrection, when they were gathered together and in the midst of their fear, they were terrified and supposed that they had seen a ghost. Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? (Luke xiv, 34-35). They knew nothing of walking on the sea, had never heard of such a thing and would not be apt to think in a moment of walking in a fiery furnace and of Him who walked in the furnace with the three faithful ones. They saw something supernatural and were afraid.

27. "That straightaway Jesus came unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I, be not afraid." All His thoughts to us are peace. He is the Prince of Peace, the God of Peace; He is our peace, etc. (Isa. ix, 6; Heb. xii, 20; Eph. ii, 14). He is in all the events of life to His people, for nothing can come to any child of God without His permission. All things work together for good to them that love God, who are the called, according to His purpose (Rom. viii, 28), so that we should say, under all circumstances, This is part of God's purpose for me and is working out His good pleasure for me and I will and therefore I will trust and not be afraid.

28, 29. "When Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water to go to Jesus." Having asked permission to come to Jesus on the water and being bidden to come, he started. How many steps he took we know not, but we are sure he walked on the water, for this is the record. Do we lay it to heart that mortal men like ourselves have actually walked about in a fiery furnace without harm, have walked on the sea, have walked through the mouth of the lion, have walked on dry land, have been in a den with lions and in the belly of a fish and have suffered no hurt, and all as the Lord's doing, because He was with them or sent them?

30. "When he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me." Seeing Jesus, we see neither wind nor wave, and all is well, but as soon as we take our eyes from Him we fail. Our instructions are to run with patience, looking unto Jesus (Heb. xii, 2), which means looking so intently that we see naught else. They saw no man, and yet Jesus, who with themselves is the attitude in which we ought to live (Mark ix, 8). "They turned not as they went, but to the place whether the Lord looked they followed" (Ezek. x, 11).

31. "Oh, thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?" This is what our Lord said as He stretched forth His hand and caught him. Compare the "little faith" of chapter xiv, 8, and contrast the "great faith" of chapters xv, 10; xv, 28. Without faith it is impossible to please God, and how reasonable it is that we should have faith in God! (Heb. xi, 6; Mark xi, 22). It is the one thing that God requires of us that we believe just what He says regardless of what we think or people say or our reason seems to tell us. The one question for a true believer is or ought to be, What hath God said? And that settles it and is to Him an end of all controversy. Peter saw wind and waves; Philip saw thousands of people, but no bread; Andrew saw five loaves and thought them not worth mentioning; Israel saw before cities and giants, or the Red sea wall and the Egyptian hosts; but Stephen saw the glory of God and Jesus; Abraham saw God and His promises; Moses endured as seeing Him who is invisible; so with Caleb and Joshua.

32, 33. "The wind ceased." John vi, 21, says that immediately the ship was at the land, whether they were going. The whole story is marvelous of the church in this age. Our Lord has gone away, and we see Him no more except by faith. The church is telling against contrary winds; He sees and cares, and in the morning watch He will come, and we shall instantly be at our destination, and all storms will be over. We shall meet Him in the air and be forever with the Lord.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic for the Week Beginning July 1.—Comment by Rev. S. H. Boyce.

Topic.—When is a nation safe?—Deut. xvi, 17. (A nation safe?)
The topical reference is found among the statutes and judgments which through Moses God gave to Israel to observe to do when they should come into the land which he should give them. The immediate reference is to the presentation of the first fruits, but in a broader sense we can apply the passage to the national life of Israel in its relation to God, and can learn from a study this reference some of the vital and essential elements of a safe nation.

1. A nation to be safe must believe in God as the true source of national life and property. National faith is as essential to national safety as individual faith. The Jews fervently believed in God as a nation, and they also believed that God gave them the land which was their national home. The nation that does not believe in God will not fear and serve God. Our faith, as a nation, in God should be specially strong. We cannot doubt that He has given this land and all its blessings to us any more than Israel could doubt that Canaan was the gift of God.

2. A nation, to be safe, must acknowledge God as the author and preserver of national life and blessings. We must not only believe, but acknowledge, our faith to the world. In presenting the first fruits the worshiper was to say, "I profess this land unto the Lord thy God that I am come unto the country which the Lord swore unto our fathers for to give us." So we should profess our national faith in God to all the nations of the world. By word and deed the nations should be made to know in whom we believe. A public acknowledgment of faith is a constant safeguard against apostasy.

A professed faith is not so easily broken as an unacknowledged faith. God to all the nations of the world. God. It must consecrate its first and best fruits to Him who is the ruler of nations and kingdoms. It must not only believe in God as the King of Kings and confess its faith, but must also practice it. God has a destiny for every nation as for every individual. It should be the aim of every nation to discover its divine destiny and then to solemnly carry the will of God into effect. In carrying out such a principle every nation must stand for those principles which are pleasing to God—for righteousness, justice, charity and unselfishness. The national life must aim for the moral and spiritual uplift of the people of the nation and also for the people of the world. There is no safety in a national life that disregards the great truths and principles which God has established as the foundations of prosperous and successful nations.

Campbell is a monumental liar. He says all miners are out at Henderson, Carbonate, Oak Hill, Harmsley, Basket, and some miners out at Madisonville and Sebree. All these places are working and producing as much coal as usual at this time of the year except Sebree, which mine is entirely closed. Harmsley is shipping more coal than ever before even in its busiest time, so is Madisonville. Oak Hill has forty-five men at work, but Campbell says eight or ten "things" have begun work there. By the way, it looks as if a few Earlington boys will get into "trouble" shortly if reports are true, and will need another climate.

little photo-brown crown he wears as Secretary and Treasurer has turned the little sense he ever had entirely into self conceit. The miners of Western Kentucky who belong to the U. M. W. are fast discovering that the most worthless, but most expensive "things" they have to do with are Wood &amp; Campbell.

J. H. Kennedy, of Terre Haute, Ind., the man who collects part of that forty-two cents per week for striking miners, complains because Evansville buys Earlington coal. If he chooses to remember, he forced the Evansville miners to strike, thereby preventing Evansville steam users from getting Indiana coal.

These Evansville business men got tired of this sort of business and came to Earlington for coal because they get it every day in the year, though they pay for it at the same price the Evansville miners ask for it (when they have coal).

Kennedy reports "trouble" at not less than four mines. Such reports from him are of weekly occurrence, but he is paid by the U. M. W. to make "trouble," and should be classed as a wholesale dealer in the article.

By the way, it looks as if a few Earlington boys will get into "trouble" shortly if reports are true, and will need another climate.
